

Assessment Guidance

Rating Instruction

1 = Not applicable

Not applicable or Does not demonstrate any understanding of competency or experiences/skills

2 = Has some knowledge/experience

Demonstrates basic competency level; inconsistent; lacks experience

3 = Foundation technical/skills/professional area

Demonstrates stated behaviors; would benefit from further development and experience

4 = Depth breadth in technical/skills/professional area

Demonstrates mastery of competency; good understanding and experience

5 = Deep expertise in technical/skills/professional area

Demonstrates superior understanding and experience with competency; an expert

- Collaboration

Works effectively with others on a common task in a personal or virtual environment; Promotes knowledge sharing and fostering motivation to achieve common tasks; Collaborates across and outside of organizational boundaries to establish networks and partnerships within the ecosystem.

- Driving Innovation

Generates new ideas for solving issues and leads IP contribution; Creates, embraces and uses new digital technologies and new working methods to solve problems

- Coaching & Developing Others

Coaches and empowers people to establish an agile and learning culture; Builds up digital domain knowhow and technical competencies for related teams.

- Communication

Masters communication in a virtual or physical environment, with diverse personalities and communication styles and anticipates the potential effect of one's own communication; Gives clear direction including intentions and objectives.

- Business Acumen (strategic direction, business development ability)

Understands own business area with Siemens' and industry context; Collects, analyzes and provides meaningful insight independently, and creates valuable business proposals with good feedback; Drives business development in certain areas.

- Driving Change

Drives change by encouraging and supporting people to commit themselves to the change; Manages complex change projects/initiatives with a broad understanding of cultural contexts, resistance and success factors.

- Technology trend and related business impact

Follows the latest technological developments/inventions and understands their associated short and long-term business impact; Has good experiences with own domain in applying or defining relevant domain-specific standards and regulations.

- Understanding to Siemens business, products, solutions and services

Has an overall understanding of the key offerings, market positioning and strategies of Siemens' businesses; Has good experiences in developing new or using existing Siemens' products or solutions for real customer applications.

- End customer applications

Understands the end customer applications of related technology domains; Thinks from customers' perspective and proactively seeks to fulfill customers' requirements at a high level of quality.

- Market understanding, e.g. competitors, Alternative technology

Has a good overview of key players, including their offerings and strategies to anticipate future trends; Understands the differences between the offerings of the most important players and assesses the reaction of market